WEST Dorset District Council Leader Robert Gould has told critics of the council's new offices in Dorchester that the time for questions had now passed.

He was responding to criticism of his decision to decline an invitation by opponents of the scheme to answer questions.

FORMER teacher and librarian Maya Pieris is best known for her Four Seasons range of handmade preserves and her interest in historical cookery.

She was named Dorset Food Hero 2011 and has won awards from the Guild of Fine Food and Taste the West, even though her home in Askerswell has been without a functioning kitchen for the past two years.

Maya is a member of the History Girls, who specialise in historical catering, and who provided the buffet for the reopening of Bridport's Town Hall. She writes a regular food column for Eggardon and Colmer's View and has appeared on ITV's cookery show Hungry Sailors.

■ HAVE you always been interested in cooking?

Oh yes. It was something my mother and grandmother did. They were really good cooks, traditional cooks, and my memory of my mother is of her cooking. Years and years ago I thought I should do something to do with cookery but I didn't until a five or six-years-ago.

■ WHAT made you embark on a career in cooking?

I taught and was a librarian in various schools, colleges, that kind of thing. I had three really bad jobs in a row and I thought, 'that's it, I don't want to be in four walls with a window and a door any more'. I decided to do what I love instead.

■ YOUR business is home-based, but you have no kitchen?

The house I bought in Askerswell had unforeseen issues which meant the kitchen has been pretty much unusable for the past couple of years. I've had to beg and borrow kitchen space, which has been interesting. But kitchen spaces, like the hall at Litton Cheney have worked out brilliantly, so it's really turned out okay.

■ HOW did the History Girls come about?

The History Girls came out of going to a poetry meeting in Cattistock. The Fox & Hounds pub there was giving people the opportunity to come and cater. It's a brilliant pub, really old, and I thought it would be great to do some historical cookery there and use the evening to raise funds for the Bridport Museum. So that's what I, Emily Hicks and Caroline Richards did, and that's when we formed the History Girls.

■ WHERE do you get the recipes?

I am not an academic, I don't have it all in my head. I am always reaching for recipe books. I think my first one was on bread-making that my mum gave me years ago when I was still living at home. I don't know why it impressed me, but it did. I have about 300 historical recipe books now and I dip into them all the time.

■ WHAT kind of things do you make?

Pickled mackerel called 'caveach' is very popular. It's cooked very quickly in oil and then vinegar, spices are added, particularly mace, and it's served cold. It's really scrummy. And then there are little beetroot pancakes, very light with a horseradish sauce on top. People also love our little tarts filled with syllabub - sweet cream with sherry and sugar. You'll find recipes for syllabub going back to the 1400s when it was just cream milked straight into a pot, whisked up with eggs and then eaten with alcohol. Cucumber cooked in butter, chicken stock and herbs is also fabulous.

■ DO you have a favourite thing to cook at home?

Not really. What I like is having people in the house. Once I have people coming into the house I think, 'What am i going to do?' At new year we had a roasted cheese with a 16th century bread that I absolutely love and lots of different mulled wines, ciders and possets.

■ WHAT do you like about living in West Dorset?

I have never been in a place where you can engage with people so quickly. I spent years in Hitchin, Hertfordshire and was really well known there, but still it was hard to get anything going. But around here you suggest something and people don't just say, 'Great, you go and do it', they say, 'Yeah that will be fun to join in with'. It's a real marrying of ideas, there's always somebody receptive to something. For example I am secretary of the Bridport Food Festival - we've set up a poetry project with junior schools called Potting Shed Poetry and we're bringing out a biscuit book. I'm also hoping to work with two artists I met at Bridport Art Centre, and in our village we've set up an apple pressing project. It's just a great place to be.

Vehicle abandoned

THE abandoned vehicle is recovered

ONE person is currently helping Bridport police with their enquiries after an allegedly stolen van was found abandoned on St Andrew's Industrial Estate early yesterday (Tuesday) morning.

A Citroen Relay van containing a quantity of meat was found adjacent to A J Supplies in Shoe Lane around 7.30am having collided with a wooden gate.

Although some of the contents were found on the ground alongside the van it is unclear at this point if anything was stolen.

Anyone with any information should contact Bridport police on 101.

New toilet facilities open in town centre

NEW toilets have opened in Bridport town centre at a cost of more than £100,000.

Residents can now spend a penny in the modern purpose built toilet block after the district council forked out £130,000 to build it in the South Street car park.

The toilets will cost West Dorset district Council up to £15,000 a year to run and maintain (the average annual cost of each toilet block it runs).

The block provides male, female and disabled toilets as well as baby changing facilities.

The district council said the new toilets will provide a "much better service for residents and visitors" because it is a brand new, up-to-date, modern toilet facility.

The opening follows the closure of the East Street car park toilets – which cost WDDC more than £12,000 to repair, maintain and run in the last financial year.

The future of the East Street toilet block remains a mystery while WDDC decides what to do with it.

Earlier this year the district council announced it would put the building up for sale, although it has yet to disclose a price tag.

WDDC leader Robert Gould has previously said there would be a planning brief for buyers so it was clear what sort of development would be acceptable on the site.

Councillor Martin Ray, leader of Bridport Town Council, said the two councils had worked well together to provide the toilets.

He said: "Bridport Town Council is very pleased that the new public toilets are now open in South Street Car Park.

"It was always the intention that these new town centre facilities would be provided by West Dorset District Council, as part of the Town Hall project.

"The two councils have worked well in partnership on this project, with the Town Surveyor managing the project delivery on behalf of the district council."

Bridport now has three toilets: the WDDC run facilities at the bus station and in South Street and the Bridport

Town Council run toilets in the refurbished town hall.

Councillor Gould said: "We have been working closely with Bridport Town Council, which has undertaken the works.

"I'm very pleased this project has now been completed as the new toilets at South Street will offer a much better service for residents and visitors to the town."

The new facilities mean the district council will continue to pay for the operation of two toilets in Bridport.

Planning permission for the new toilets in South Street car park was granted in July 2011 with builders CG Fry & Son awarded the construction contract in January 2012.

Time for the questioning to stop, says council leader

council offices, in High West Street, has been placed with an estate agent and will be marketed soon. He has also spoken out over claims that the second phase of Charles Street will not proceed, although has not expressly said that it will definitely go ahead, qualifying his commitment to the second phase.

"West Dorset District Council is in talks with the developer Simons and we are committed to completing the second phase of the development. It is hoped that phase two of the project will start mid-2013. A number of retailers have expressed a high level of interest in the project, which is very positive."

Mr Gould says that the move by the district council into the new offices will take place before Christmas with Dorset County Council staff occupying the new library and adult education centre from early 2013.

Opponents of the scheme have been critical of the spending, in times of austerity, and are upset that some key decisions about the development appear to have been taken without the knowledge of all district councillors. They also fear that the existing district council offices, Stratton House in High West Street, will remain unoccupied apart from the relocated Tourist Information Centre and Tolpudle Martyrs Visitor Centre.

"How would councillors have voted had they known the facts they now know? Phase One's council offices (and library) were the massively undemocratic aberration. Councillors must now lead, set aside party politics and demand an urgent, several-hours-long council debate on WDDC's biggest investment in 38 years, and control, as our elected representatives, whether – with facts as they are today – more council-tax payers' money should now be spent on moving/fitting-out new offices, or instead make do, with improvements, in Stratton House," said John Grantham from the Public Holds WDDC to Account group.

Crime conference could take place annually

A RURAL crime conference for Dorset could become an annual event.

Talks will now be held about the idea after the success of Operation Countryside's inaugural event at Kingston Maurward College.

The event last Friday, sponsored by Crimestoppers was initiated by Inspector Les Fry who had taken inspiration from a similar event in Gloucester last year.

Inspector Fry said: "I'm incredibly happy with the success of the event. It got to the people most likely to be affected, so I hope we have come some way towards helping potential victims of crime to safeguard their businesses for the future.

"Our message to rural businesses is help us to help you: prevent criminals getting into your business; protect your assets being taken; and identify them so that they can be returned to you if they are stolen".

Speakers covered criminal issues faced by rural businesses and preventative measures to deter thieves. They highlighted the cost of crime to businesses, both in terms of insurance, and the more immediate effect of securing sometimes costly alternatives if equipment has been stolen.

Over 180 attendees registered to see the day's speakers, trade stands and demonstrations, which opened with an introduction by Richard Drax - MP for Dorset South.

Other speakers included High Sheriff of Dorset, Jeremy Pope, Mr Craig Baker - Area Manager for Dorset Fire and Rescue, and Vice President of the NFU, Adam Quinney.

Have your say on eco-project

A PUBLIC drop-in session is being held in Bridport to give community groups and residents a chance to help shape a Lottery-funded project.

Along with Dorchester, the town's community is being asked how a Lottery grant could help them tackle climate change.

Communities Living Sustainably is a £10 million programme funded by the Big Lottery Fund, which aims to help people deal with the potential impact of climate change.

Funding has already been awarded to develop the project in West Dorset, and it is hoped that Bridport and Dorchester area will be one of ten across the country to be awarded a substantial grant to tackle issues such as local food production, home energy efficiency, community sustainable energy and work with schools.

Georgina Morgan, Chief Executive of Dorset Community Action, which is leading the project, believes it will bring together many existing organisations and activities which are working towards a more sustainable future for the area.

She said: "There is already so much activity in Bridport and Dorchester, from allotment projects and community woodland to Eco Schools and Transition Town groups. Our area has been selected because we will be able to provide inspiration to other areas both in Dorset and across the country.

"We also have a high proportion of elderly residents here and we are keen to support vulnerable people likely to be affected by climate change, for example those who struggle to pay for the cost of heating their homes."

She added: "We are keen for more local people and groups to help develop these climate change projects.

"We would encourage anyone interested to come along, and you don't need to be an expert to get involved. Visitors to the drop-in sessions will be able to find out more about existing projects and help shape new ones."

They will also be able to meet representatives from the partner organisations which include Dorset Agenda 21, the West Dorset Partnership, the Dorset Coast Forum, Dorset County Council, Rural-Net and Dorset Community Action.

The community drop-in sessions are being held at the Dorchester Corn Exchange on Wednesday, May 23rd and at Bridport Town Hall the next day. Both events will run from 2 to 7pm but people can just drop in at any time.

For further information about the Communities Living Sustainably project, contact Dorset Community Action on 01305 250921 or Simon Thompson on 07974 723087.

Loders patchwork group present Olympic quilt to sailing academy

A QUILT made by a Loders group has been presented to the National Sailing Academy. Six members of 'A Loada Patchers' designed the patchwork quilt to recognise Weymouth and Portland's contribution to this year's Olympic Games.

All the designs of the panels are original, using a variety of materials including individually made fabrics, and reflect aspects of the local area.

Chris Knight, WPNSA Business Manager, said the academy was delighted to receive the quilt which is now hung in the restaurant.

All members are also contributors to Project Linus UK, a volunteer organisation that makes quilts as gifts for sick, disabled or distressed children. The making of the quilt was supported by Project Linus and Angela Hartle, co-ordinator for West Dorset, said that the finished quilt was an indicator of the level of skill and effort that people put into making Project Linus quilts. She also said that it made a nice change to make a 'grown-up' quilt occasionally.

Wonderland nursery celebrates 20 years

BRIDPORT'S Wonderland Day Nursery celebrated 20 years of childcare with a day of treats for the children.

And for staff member Josie Martinez it was a trip down memory lane - she was one of the first children to enroll when the nursery first opened in 1992.

Josie's mother Jill McClimonds set up the business in the old St Mary's School building on Gundry Lane, which was at the time being run as a gallery, after stints running the Travellers Rest and Royal Oak pubs.

In the early days Mrs McClimonds, who is originally from Portland, had just six children to look after. She now has 107 youngsters and nine full time staff on the books.

She still runs the business but has handed over day-to-day management to a full time manager.

Mrs McClimonds said of running the nursery for two decades: "It's been lovely. The children are such fun, so funny. They are such little characters."

To mark the milestone the children enjoyed a cake, bouncy castle and visits from Peppa Pig and Hello Kitty.

Make sure you're bike safe

THERE are still places available for motorcyclists to book onto the last BikeSafe course before the Olympics take place.

The two part BikeSafe course is being run this June at the Salt House at West Bay.

The first part of the course takes place on the Saturday, June 23rd from 10am to 4pm and consists of a theory presentation which highlights the causes of accidents and the theory of advanced riding.

The second part of the course is an assessed ride which will take place on the Sunday between either 9am and 12 midday or 1pm and 4pm.

The course is available to anyone who rides a motorbike with an engine size of at least 250cc.

The cost of the course remains £20 this year as it is subsidised by Dorset County Council - the course fee was £40 back in 2010.

Police Constable Chris Smith, BikeSafe Co-ordinator, said: "The course that we're running in June at West Bay will be the last opportunity for motorcyclists to attend a BikeSafe course before the Olympics."

"We still have a few spaces available for this course and I'd encourage anyone who rides a bike with an engine size of 250cc or more to come on the course."

"Even experienced bikers could learn something on the BikeSafe course that may one day save their life."

"It is a great opportunity to gain advice and tips on areas including cornering, overtaking, positioning and hazard perception."

"The Dorset Police riders that run this course are genuinely passionate about motorcycling."

For full details, or to book a place on the course, please visit the national BikeSafe website www.bikesafe.co.uk

More details about the course can also be found on the Dorset Police website www.dorset.police.uk

Countdown to the Big Read

THE build up to the second Bridport Open Book Festival begins this weekend with the unveiling of the Big Read and Junior Big Read books.

This year's chosen books will be introduced to the town's bookworms in the Arts Centre forecourt on Saturday, May 19th at noon.

The Big Read aims to introduce people to great books and to get as many people as possible in the town reading and talking about them.

Former Bridport Prize runner-up Nicholas Hogg's book 'Show Me The Sky' has been chosen in the adult category. The Junior Big Read is 'Wonder' by R J Palacio. Both books will be available to buy from the festival's partners Waterstones.

Arts Centre director, Polly Gifford, said the Bridport Big Read aimed to introduce people to great books and support reading as a communal as well as an individual activity.

She said: "Another aim is to support past winners of the Bridport Prize so where possible, we select a book from a past winner, such as Nicholas Hogg's excellent debut novel 'Show Me the Sky'. The Junior Big Read was suggested by the Arts Centre's Learning Coordinator Kate Wilson and her daughter. 'Wonder' has such a powerful theme and story that we didn't need much persuading."

The books have been suggested so people can read them before discussing their content at the town's book festival which runs from October 10th-14th.

It will include a mix of writers, workshops for budding scribes, including poetry, fiction and song-lyric writing, as well as film events, theatre and music.

The festival's line-up will include appearances by award-winning poets and novelists Patrick Gale, Gwynneth Lewis and Philip Gross.

Last year's hugely successful 'Off the Page' project will return with performances from young Dorset writers, alongside a big name from the world of performance poetry.

Keep an eye on www.bridport-open-book.com for more details.

■ THE Bridport branch of the Lions club has celebrated its 39th year serving the community.

On Sunday, April 29th the Bridport club marked the anniversary of the granting of its charter with a grand lunch at in the Highlands End Holiday Park.

It might have been raining outside, but the club's members together with the Mayor and Mayoress of the town, and many guests from other Lions clubs, were singing to the accompaniment of Bonny Sartin of The Yetties fame in the holiday park's function room.

The proceeds from this year's raffle went to Help for Heroes.

Almost £300 was raised to the delight of Lions President, Don Morley, who said that this was probably the highest amount ever collected at this annual occasion.

Meet the artists at new Broadwindsor gallery

A NEW venue in Broadwindsor is offering people more than just the chance to view works of art when they visit.

The Attic Gallery, which has opened in Broadwindsor's craft centre, is giving visitors the opportunity to meet the artists themselves by having them staff the venue.

Craft centre manager Sarah Saunders believes the scheme will benefit both the visitors and the artists.

She said: "At the moment we have 12 local artists on the walls or on the shelves. They rent space from us and they each work one day a fortnight here at the gallery. People can come and see them at work or talk to them about their art. It will be a different artist each day.

by Chris Denne

chris.denne@pemedial.co.uk

"An artist is more passionate than a salesperson so this is a great way for visitors to get more out of the experience, and also a good way for artists to promote and sell their pieces.

"We have a rota so there will be an artist here nearly every day, but people should call the gallery beforehand to make sure."

She added: "We have different works, different types of art. We are not going for all the same type of art, so there is a real range of styles on offer."

David Brackston, who has made a living from painting for 53 years, is delighted to meet people interested in his work.

He said: "It's good because you find out what people like. It's something you don't find out if you're stuck in the studio all the time, which can be quite an isolated thing.

White Elephant Furniture has relocated from Burton Bradstock to a shop in George Street.

Mrs Thorpe said the new premises would give The White Elephant a much higher profile and they would be able to add many new gift lines such as home-wares, glassware, mirrors, ornaments and pottery, as well as vintage collectables and pictures by Dorset artist Cameron Hope.

She said: "Our business is very eco-friendly. We are known for going green in any colour.

"We have supplied furniture for Bredy House and several other holiday businesses in Bridport and it's proving to be a positive and economic approach to interior design with bespoke colour matching."

Greenfingered help needed

AN APPEAL for greenfingered volunteers has been launched by Bridport Community orchard Group (BCOG).

The drive to recruit more volunteers comes after funding was cut to pay the current manager of the gardening club at the town's allotments.

Plans are being made to manage the allotments entirely by volunteers so BCOG want to increase the number of people involved, on more days of the week, to suit as many people as possible.

Since the community allotment was started in 2009 and a second plot taken on in 2011, Carolyn Brightwater has run a gardening club there on Thursday afternoons.

BCOG are keen to continue to support the current gardening club members, said its chairman Jill Lloyd.

She said: "The club will continue to use the allotments for the rest of this summer, but as from early July, Carolyn will not be able to be there.

"Until now we have been fortunate to have obtained funding to pay her, but in the current situation, this funding is no longer available. Carolyn is now establishing her own project elsewhere.

The existing club has cared for the plots very well, and they are in very good order."

She added: "BCOG invite local community groups (including the existing gardening club members) organisations or individuals, who would be interested in using part of the two plots from autumn 2013 to contact us no later than early October - let's say by Apple Day on the 13th - and then we can discuss how we can move forward."

BCOG have used the grant funding obtained from POPP, the Co-operative Community fund, Grass Roots Grants and their own funds and effort to establish a shed with tools and equipment, a polytunnel, a seating area, and tea making facilities.

For more information or to get involved in looking after the allotments, visit BCOG's website at www.bridportcommunityorchard.org.uk

Buddies scheme up and running

A SCHEME providing Bridport's most needy residents with home support has been launched.

A year after plans were first mooted the town's Bridport Buddies scheme is up and running.

It will give elderly and vulnerable people in the market town and the surrounding area vital help in their fight to remain independent and stay in their own homes.

The launch follows a plea in the View From Bridport for volunteer co-ordinators to step forward to organise meetings between clients and volunteers.

Partnerships for Older People Projects (POPP), NHS Dorset and WRVS are now working together to fully establish the service.

The scheme's ten volunteers were on stand-by for almost a year before Jo Burlington and Sara Saint-James were appointed co-ordinators.

But the scheme now boasts more volunteers than clients. Anyone wanting to volunteer or benefit from the befriending service is urged to contact the scheme's organisers.

Volunteers, the co-ordinators and representatives from services linked with the scheme met for the first time in Bridport's Art Café to discuss its future.

Mrs Burlington said: "Because the project stalled when first set up the meeting was to let the volunteers know it was going to get started now."

by Paul Crompton
paul@pemedial.co.uk

"We hadn't met any of the volunteers before so it was a good opportunity to meet them because they signed up to the project a year ago."

"I just think the volunteers were really pleased it's got going because it's something they wanted to do."

Clients are matched with volunteers after a series of meetings between themselves and the co-ordinators, who pair them up based on their interests.

Services include: home visits, sharing a cup of tea and a chat, accompanying clients on shopping trips or taking them on short wheelchair excursions.

Retired business woman Eileen Murton has signed up to volunteer as a way of giving something back to the community.

She said: "I just felt that to volunteer is to do something good."

"I don't particularly want to sit around doing nothing, there's plenty I can do but to help other people - particularly people who are vulnerable - by popping round for a chat or to help out is the least I can do."

"Also the satisfaction I will get out of it and the feeling of doing something useful for someone will be worth it."

Lisa Knight, from NHS Dorset, said volunteers should have good communication skills.

She said: "Anyone can become a volunteer and make an incredible difference to someone else's life by donating just one hour per week."

"The scheme is important on a number of levels but first and foremost the local community identified that there is need for community support for vulnerable adults and older adults."

For more information or to volunteer as a co-ordinator or befriender, call Lisa Knight on 01305 368053, Karen Jones, Outreach Worker, Volunteer Centre Dorset on 07918 639012 or Sue Herman, POPP Community Leader, on 07760 762278.

Plants in tandem!

THE manager of a Bridport business will help ride a tandem bike for charity.

Charlie Groves of Groves Nurseries is set to help out in a 247 mile "Barathon".

The challenge is to tow a trailer full of plants on a tandem bicycle from Newton Abbot to The Chelsea Flower Show in aid of two gardening charities.

The charities are Gardening Leave - using Horticultural Therapy for ex-Service personnel and GreenFingers - creating magical gardens for children's hospices.

The challenge is the brainchild of Fermoys Garden Centre in Devon.

The team are hoping to raise over £10,000 for these two great causes.

Charlie Groves, manager at Groves Nurseries will meet with Alan Murdoch, manager of Fermoys at Sidmouth Garden Centre on May 18th and help peddle the tandem driven wheelbarrow to Weymouth.

He is calling in to Groves Garden Centre in Bridport at around 11am.

Mr Groves said: "I received a phone call from Alan a couple of months ago asking if he could call in to our centre on his travels. I thought it sounded like good fun so offered my services to help him out with the peddling as well. Groves has already raised over £2,000 for Greenfingers charity this year with the help of local schools and this seemed like nice little extension of that."

Hollywood glamour for school prom

A RED double-decker, a Bangkok-style tuk-tuk, a horse-drawn carriage and a Green Goddess fire engine were just some of the means by which the students of the Sir John Colfox School gathered for their Year 11 prom.

Hundreds of onlookers crowded the school drop-off zone as the youngsters, resplendent in sequins and heels, black ties and dinner-jackets, emerged from their exotic modes of transport to blink in the glare of popping flashes.

There was more than a touch of Hollywood about the affair, helped by some welcome evening sunshine, as classic vehicles mixed with luxury cars in what is fast becoming an eye-opener for motor-ing enthusiasts.

Having posed for the cameras and caught up with friends, the chattering party-goers disappeared inside coaches bound for the annual dance.

Round Britain runner
jogs into Bridport

by Paul Crompton
paul@pemedial.co.uk

A MAN running through Bridport in tight shorts would not normally get a positive response – but Sam Boatwright is not your average man.

The 29-year-old stopped off in the market town on his life-changing 2,500-mile trip around the UK – which he aims to complete by running 50 miles each day.

The ex-Navy sailor was given a free luxury room at the Bull Hotel after completing the 33rd day of his epic 50-day jog around the country's coastline.

He starts his challenge each morning at 8am and runs for nine hours, burning up to 6,000 calories a day.

The rugby playing Bradford man said the run had even restored his faith in the people and countryside of the UK since starting out on April 6th.

Sam is running to raise money for Help for Heroes after deciding he wanted to do something to push his body and mind to the limit.

He said: "I wanted to do something that challenged and pushed my body beyond the limit of what's normal."

"I looked at going up Everest or K2 but you can almost get pushed up to the top, it's just a case of your body acclimatising, so I wanted to do something I had to do myself. I have to run the miles, nobody can do it for me."

The personal trainer said as he rested in the Bull Hotel: "There have been some days that have been gruelling and tortuous but days like today have been brilliant."

"I always wondered why anyone would go on holiday in the UK but running down here I can definitely see why people come to Bridport, it's beautiful.

"I'm falling in love with the English countryside and the people."

"I've gone on about broken Britain but so many people have come and given me money on this run, people have been so generous, it's been amazing, something I'll always remember. People talk about the north-south divide but I've not seen anything like that just human decency."

Sam was inspired by Eddie Izzard's similar run, but unlike the comedian his team comprises of his wife, friends and one stranger who offered to drive him after a day's running.

When he gets to his destination he has a bath and lays down to let the blood settle in his legs and then up-dates his Facebook and reads messages from well-wishers.

Sam also writes for a book he hopes to publish about his challenge.

He is also planning another run possible across America or Europe.

Billy Lintell, the Bull Hotel marketing manager, said: "They approached us directly and we obviously get inundated for charity things but we felt, firstly, what he was trying to achieve was amazing and that Help for Heroes was a really worthwhile charity."

"We gave him a luxury room with a roll top bath because we felt needed a bit of luxury after pounding the roads and you have got to support someone that undertakes something like that."

Local derby cup final

TWO teams from Bridport have reached the final of a long-running under 11's football competition in what will be a real local derby.

Bridport Primary School and St Catherine's Catholic Primary School are less than half a mile apart, but they will meet in the final of the Kenway Cup, having seen off challenges from 16 other teams in west Dorset.

St.Catherine's will be looking to win the trophy for the first time since 2004 with Bridport Primary aiming to repeat their success of 2009.

The cup final will take place in front of the main stand at Bridport Football Club's ground in St Mary's Field on Tuesday May 22nd at 4.15pm, with all welcome to come and enjoy the match.

The Kenway Cup has been running since 1950-51, when Bridport Grammar School ran out winners.

Sparkling celebration wine to mark jubilee

A SPECIAL wine has been created for the Queen's Diamond jubilee celebrations.

The sparkling rosé has been made by the Furleigh Estate vineyard and winery to coincide with the event and will be released during the celebrations on Monday, June 4th.

On that day the Furleigh Estate will be holding an open day with tours of the vineyard and winery plus a fish and fizz lunch organised by the Bridge House Hotel in Beaminster.

Visitors will see the first bottle officially opened and can taste it on the same day.

Rebecca Hansford of the Furleigh Estate said: "For a long time people have been asking us to make a sparkling rosé. We have been planning this for a while and thought the ideal time to launch it would be during the Jubilee celebrations.

We hope to get as many as possible joining us on our open day and trying the new wine."

The vineyard has been building a nationwide reputation for its whites, reds and rosé still wines, plus its famous Classic Cuvee sparkling wine.

■ MEN IN BRAS: (L-R) Andy Whitbread, John Eames, Stuart Rook practice parkour moves

HEADS were turned in West Bay when three lads donned bras and leapt off walls during their parkour practice session.

John Eames, Stuart Rook (both 17) and Andy Whitbread (25) wore the ladies' lingerie in a bid to raise money for the breast cancer research charity Breakthrough.

John saw bra cookies being sold for charity at his workplace, Leaker's Bakery.

Parkour is an activity which teaches the most efficient way to negotiate urban obstacles like walls, buildings and fences. It requires high levels of fitness, balance and physical training.

The lads were joined by friends Viki Phyllosofou and Jade Coombes, who manned collection pots from intrigued passers-by.

Andy said: "We've got so many looks, but when we explain what we're doing, they give us money."

Twitching author online

A WEST Compton writer is following in the footsteps of Stephen Fry and Monty Python's Terry Jones by using the internet to get his novel published.

Kevin Parr is hoping to be published via the Unbound website after quitting his job as a logistics manager to follow his dream of becoming a full-time writer.

The website has successfully published books by the two celebrities.

Mr Parr's novel 'The Twitch' was inspired by the world of obsessive bird watchers known as 'twitchers'.

The 38-year-old said: "I've always had an interest in birds and wildlife, so when a white-tailed eagle got blown off course and ended up in Andover, I went to have a look.

"I didn't see the eagle but I saw this amazing bunch of twitchers going crazy to get a look. They are totally obsessive, really astonishing characters.

"One guy was a private investigator by trade and had all sorts of kit... night scopes, infra-red cameras and all kinds of things, just to see birds. He drove 500 miles a day to tick off birds he'd seen.

"I thought what would happen if I pushed this a bit further."

The former angling correspondent confesses that his debut, which revolves around one twitcher's descent into obsession and murder, is "probably not an ideal bedtime story for your children."

He said: "It is very much a black comedy. It's pretty dark, but also quite silly and funny."

The Unbound website allows visitors to pledge for books they would like to see published. Rewards for pledges range from receiving a copy of the book to having a character named after you, depending on how much is pledged.

The Twitch currently needs 436 more pledges over the next 13 days to be published.

To watch the novel's promotional video, or to pledge visit www.unbound.co.uk/books/the-twitch

I WAS just ten-years-old in June 1953. It was such an exciting day for me. I was at my small prep school and we all went into our headmistress' lounge and sat crossed legged on the floor.

We saw the Coronation on a small television. I can remember the beautiful coach and horses, and all the people. When it came to the ceremony the abbey seemed huge (of course, it is).

The thing I remember so much is when the Queen stood up from the throne with her amazing crown and carrying in her hands the sceptre with the cross and the orb.

They looked so heavy and it seemed such a long way to walk. The music was also amazing.

It was such a special day, we talked about it for weeks after.

Julia G.E. Ellis, Bridport

I WELL remember the Coronation. At the time I was eight-years-old and living in Dorchester.

My father, who was a police sergeant, felt very honoured to be part of a detachment of officers who travelled to London to assist the Metropolitan officers on the day lining the Royal route.

On his return he talked for days of his experience with the crowds and the Royal procession. He was so enthusiastic about the event, it felt to me as if the whole family had been there with him.

Whilst he was in London, my mother took my brother and I to stay with my aunt and uncle. My Uncle Ken was an electronics scientist and worked at a secret Government establishment nearby. He had built his own television from scratch, completing it just in time.

I had never seen a television before and the fact my uncle had built it was, to me, more impressive than the programme.

We joined my auntie, uncle, cousin, some other relations and lots of neighbours to watch the BBC programme, which was of course in black and white. When I say watch, that was difficult with all the people crammed into one room and a nine inch screen but I was one of the shortest there so I had a front seat, albeit on the carpet.

Later, we all went to a nearby sports field where the celebrations continued with a hog roast.

It was a very special day!

Peter Rushden, West Allington

Temporary aerials for hall viewing

AS A young lad of 11 I went with my parents to a church hall by trolley bus on Coronation Day.

The hall was blacked out and three television sets were placed around the room.

These had been hired from a local TV dealer and were all different. One was a floor standing unit and other two were table models.

The one I watched was balanced on a pile of tables and chairs in one corner.

Temporary aerials had been set up for the day and I still remember adjustments having to be made to get a good signal.

There was a family charge of one shilling for the morning, one shilling for the afternoon and sixpence for the evening although the total charge was reduced to two shillings if you stayed all day. We took a packed lunch and a picnic tea.

I watched everything that went on during the day as we felt that we were taking part in a national event in real time - something we had not experienced before.

The pictures that we saw were of course in black and white, but this didn't detract from the experience of 'being there'.

A week or two later we went to cinema in Edmonton and saw 'A Queen Is Crowned' which was the Coronation film in Technicolor. This was very good and reinforced everything that we had seen on the day itself on TV.

The schools distributed souvenir booklets and mugs to commemorate the occasion and my uncle, who worked in a bank, gave me a newly minted Coronation crown piece.

There was a sense of hope as the new young Queen represented a new beginning following a period of mourning for the King and the effects of the war and rationing, etc.

It didn't seem to be such a materialistic age, people were more important than things.

John Cooke

I am a retired Special School Head Teacher and am currently one of two churchwardens at the town's St Mary's Church in South Street, Bridport. I have lived in Bridport for the past 31 years.

TV did not impress 11-year-old

MY memories of the Coronation have stayed with me always as being one of the worst days of my childhood that I can recall.

In 1953 I was coming up to 11-years-old. In those days 11-year-olds always had things to do outside - playing in the fields, climbing trees, finding birds' nests, games for all seasons; there was always something going on.

We didn't have a television but a neighbour, a bit better off than we were, did have one.

Mum and me were invited there for the day to watch the Coronation. I had to wear my best clothes and sit around this small black and white TV, with the girl of the house and some of her friends, plus mum and other neighbours.

I don't think I had ever watched TV before and I was not impressed, in fact I was bored stiff and hated every minute. I kept pleading with Mum to let me go home, but to no avail. I had to stay there - it was something I would remember forever.

I am sure this first experience of TV put me off for life as I very rarely watch anything now.

J. Courtney Chideock

CORONATION MEMORIES

Kids take in the 'coronation fever'

IN 1953 my husband and I and our two children were farming in what was Southern Rhodesia, now Zimbabwe. I was born there in 1922. John, my husband, had emigrated from Britain after completing his education.

Between us we had decided that this would be a good time for us to visit Britain, to take in some coronation fever. Plans were set in place and we flew to the UK at the end of May.

I had a widowed aunt living in a large, comfortable flat opposite the stadium in Wembley. She invited us to spend Coronation Day with her.

Aunt Christine's elderly neighbours had been invited to join the TV audience and they had accepted with alacrity, arriving with two enormous creamy, chocolatey drinks - Coronation teas!

John and I shared a worried glance at each other. When the time came for refreshments all round, John leapt to his feet, saying to the children, "Come on, let's go and enjoy these in the kitchen."

He told me later he had had to swallow a fair amount of rich, creamy 'goo' as it was to thick to flush down the plughole of the sink!

We had many a laugh over that, as Patrick, at his tender age, might easily have related the whole episode to the company present.

Diana was just old enough to appreciate the beauty and solemnity of the whole spectacle, and all things considered Patrick's remarks and questions went down very well.

What wonderful memories I have of that occasion. Strange to relate Diana and I now live in this land, and have done since 2005, both widowed.

AT LAST.....KETTLERCISE® COMES TO WEST DORSET

AT Last, Kettlercise® is HERE. After being launched a couple of years ago as a group fitness concept, Kettlercise® has featured in a range of fitness magazines, most recently, the March/April edition of Slimming World, and the classes have gone from strength to strength around the country.

So WHAT IS KETTLERCISE® - Many people will be familiar with the kettlebell as a piece of resistance training equipment. They comprise of what looks like a steel ball with a handle and come in a range of weights from 2kg up to over 40kg. Kettlercise uses low weights due to the nature of the classes. A class consists of a basic warm-up, kettlebell specific warm-up, then 37 exercises, each of a minutes duration. The session provides a total body workout and is a great fat burning exercise, improves core stability, as well as producing great muscle tone and muscular endurance. The end of the session involves a cool down and post workout stretches.

Kettlercise instructor Steve Reed is a diploma qualified personal trainer, who, after many years in the fire service and a move to Australia in 2005, returned to the UK and chose Bridport as a great place to live with his family. A committed exercise professional, Kettlercise was a natural progression for Steve, who had used kettlebells for his own training for many years. Taking the instructors course with the UK Register Of Kettlebell Professionals was a fun and demanding course. His success has made Steve one of the only qualified and certificated Kettlercise instructors in Dorset. He is passionate about spreading Kettlercise to anyone who wants to learn this amazing training system.

Kettlercise has really hit the headlines after featuring in the health and fitness press, and class participants are seeing amazing body transformations, as well as enjoying the fun and social aspect that group training offers. To date, around 85% of attendees are female, but men are welcome and there are a range of kettlebell weights to suit all levels of fitness.

The first class will take place at BFIT community Sports Hall, Tunnel Road, Beaminstor and will be on a Thursday at 6.30pm, beginning 24th May.

For more information on Kettlercise in your area or to book a space in a class, please contact Steve Reed on 07873 263 208, email kettlercise@stephenreed.co.uk, or join the Dorset Kettlercise group on Facebook. ## Welcome to Maritime Mix – London 2012 Cultural Olympiad by the Sea

WELCOME to Maritime Mix's new fortnightly column. Every two weeks we'll be keeping you up to date with all the events you can enjoy as part of Dorset & the Jurassic Coast's largest creative celebration, most of which are FREE. This ambitious programme is now in full swing; The Fossil Festival kicked started our May events along with the launch of The Boat Project. Battle for the Winds' epic tale has also started to unfold with the emergence of Doldrum on the beach at Lyme Regis. Next in line we have Chalk Legends which will take place at Weymouth & Portland National Sailing Academy on 18th & 19th May.

Dorset is rich in history and culture, and combining the two is exactly what Chalk Legends has set out to achieve. When digging up Weymouth for the construction of relief road in 2009, the decapitated skeletons of a group of young Vikings were found. It raised the questions of who they were and what they had done wrong - providing the inspiration for 'Chalk Legends'...

Created by Stephen McNeff, the former composer in residence for Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra, and Richard William, these interactive promenade performances will tell the story of these Vikings, alongside a tragic love story, a violent death and even a foiled escape attempt.

Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra's new music ensemble Kokoro, various youth choruses and orchestras, and young dancers and singers from six Dorset schools will be the ones to tell the tragic tale of the young group through music, dance and drama. Students from Arts University College Bournemouth will also provide the costumes to ensure its spectacular.

There are three site specific performances that will all be held in the former aircraft hangar and the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy. There will be two evening performances starting at 8pm on Friday 18th and Saturday 19th May, alongside a 5pm matinee on the Saturday too.

Make sure you don't miss the chance to uncover the secrets of these forgotten warriors - visit the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra's website to buy tickets!

If you can't wait for our next installment of events from the Maritime Mix programme make sure you visit our website where you can start to plan a truly creative summer! <http://www.maritimemix2012.co.uk>.

Legendary rockers Hawkwind to play special Bridport gig

ENGLISH rock band Hawkwind have confirmed a performance at the Electric Palace on Friday, May 25th to mark the start of their new album tour.

Formed in 1969 by former London busker Dave Brock, there have been numerous line-up changes throughout the years, but Brock remains at the helm today and is known affectionately by many of the fans as the Captain of the ship.

Hawkwind are acknowledged with creating a new genre of music 'space-rock' in the 1970s. The Orb, The Chemical Brothers and Leftfield openly acknowledge Hawkwind's influence upon their music.

In 1972 Hawkwind headlined the famous Chalk Farm Roundhouse in London. A gig billed as the "Greasy Truckers Party" this gig was to be forever etched into Hawkwind folklore, as it was at this show that their trademark single "Silver Machine" was recorded. The track, which featured Lemmy on vocals, brought the band to the attention of the wider general public after it reached number two in the UK charts in the June of that year.

The success of "Silver Machine" financed their famous 'mind blowing' themed tour, entitled 'Space Ritual'. This show set the precedent for all future Hawkwind shows. The band's wealth of creative talent, including contributions from the likes of sci-fi author Michael Moorcock, poet Bob Calvert, designer 'Barney Bubbles' and lighting engineer 'Liquid Len' created the world's first multimedia touring show. The barrage of light, sound, dance and theatrics has since become a hallmark of all subsequent Hawkwind shows, making each gig a unique and spectacular event.

After a drugs bust in USA in 1975, Lemmy left the band and went on to form 'Motorhead' and Hawkwind finished the year in style, headlining a week of psychedelic themed shows at The Royal Festival Hall in London.

Enjoy Hawkwind live at the Electric Palace on Friday, May 25th. Tickets are on sale now from Bridport Tourist Information Centre 01308 424901. Seated tickets £22.50 (restricted availability) standing tickets £20 - booking fees may apply. Early booking is highly recommended.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

IN FEBRUARY we featured the work of Jane Kenyon, the American poet who died of leukaemia in 1995. Two years earlier she and her husband Donald Hall had been the subject of an Emmy Award-winning Bill Moyers documentary, "A Life Together". Here are three more of her verses.

TWILIGHT: AFTER HAYING

Yes, long shadows go out from the bales; and yes, the soul must part from the body: what else could it do?

The men sprawl near the baler, too tired to leave the field. They talk and smoke, and the tips of their cigarettes blaze like small roses in the night air. (It arrived and settled among them before they were aware.)

The moon comes to count the bales, and the dispossessed-- Whip-poor-will, Whip-poor-will --sings from the dusty stubble.

These things happen... the soul's bliss and suffering are bound together like the grasses...

The last, sweet exhalations of timothy and vetch go out with the song of the bird;

the ravaged field grows wet with dew.

NOTES FROM THE OTHER SIDE

I divested myself of despair and fear when I came here.

Now there is no more catching one's own eye in the mirror, there are no bad books, no plastic, no insurance premiums, and of course no illness. Contrition does not exist, nor gnashing of teeth. No one howls as the first clod of earth hits the casket.

The poor we no longer have with us. Our calm hearts strike only the hour, and God, as promised, proves to be mercy clothed in light.

am the blossom pressed in a book, found again after two hundred years...

BRIEFLY IT ENTERS, AND BRIEFLY SPEAKS

I am the maker, the lover, and the keeper...

When the young girl who starves sits down to a table she will sit beside me...

I am food on the prisoner's plate...

I am water rushing to the wellhead, filling the pitcher until it spills...

I am the patient gardener of the dry and weedy garden...

I am the stone step, the latch, and the working hinge...

I am the heart contracted by joy... the longest hair, white before the rest...

I am there in the basket of fruit presented to the widow...

I am the musk rose opening unattended, the fern on the boggy summit...

I am the one whose love overcomes you, already with you when you think to call my name...

If you would like to know more about Jane Kenyon you might like to read "A Hundred White Daffodils", a collection of her essays, interviews, newspaper articles etc and her translations of the Russian Anna Akhmatova's poems, which was posthumously published in 1999 by Graywolf Press.

● If you have a short poem of your own that you would like to share with our readers please send it to: Poetry for Pleasure, View From Newspapers, St Michael's Business Centre, Lyme Regis, Dorset, DT7 3QF. Or e-mail it to us at: pemedia@pemedia.co.uk

LYME Regis is gearing up for its 22nd annual jazz festival, which has this year been extended to a Jazz, Blues and Beer Festival for the first time.

Under a new organising committee, the date of the festival has also changed to the earlier time of Friday, May 25th to Sunday, May 27th with live music being held in venues across the town.

This year's headliners will be The Bateman Brothers with their 'Tribute to Louis Armstrong and his All-Stars' on Saturday evening, and King Pleasure & The Biscuit Boys on Sunday, both at the Marine Theatre.

The theatre will also open from 12.30pm on Saturday and 6.30pm on Sunday for the beer festival with 16 jazz-theme beers and five ciders, offered by the "Blues Brothers", made up of the Mighty Hop Brewery and Town Mill Brewery in Lyme Regis and Art Brew from Chideock. The beer festival will also include special performances from Half Jack and Mark Foxall.

Other performers over the weekend will include the Stour Valley Stompers, Custer's last Blues Band, Gerry Brown and the Mission Hall Jazz Band, the Tony Oreshko Trip, Old Thumper Dixie with Sir Alan Buckley, the Tanya Lonergan Band, Zoe Schwartz Blue Commotion, the Chris Walker Swingtet, Tiger Tim's Ragamuffins, the Manusa Project, the C Sharp Blues Band, Jabbo Five, Just Mibehavin', and the Jazz Vespers.

The festival will be officially opened by the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Sally Holman, at Cobb Gate at 4pm on the Friday with music from Gerry Brown and the Mission Hall Band.

Don't miss the annual Umbrella Parade on Saturday 26th. This colourful and upbeat parade will start outside the Regent Cinema at 10.30am and will follow the Louisiana Parade Band to Marine Parade.

Programmes with full details of all acts, dates and times are available at Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre, as well as tickets for single acts, single days or the whole weekend. Phone 01297 442138.

Out of this World

BRIDPORT'S only dedicated Dinner and Music Venue, 115 Club, will once again be show casing fabulous Jazz at their up coming gig on May 24th. Julie Dunn, their premiere evening performer returns, offering contemporary and classic jazz, singing and performing classics and original pieces on keyboard whilst being accompanied by Ben Waghorn on saxophone and flute. Julie stunned the 115 Club guests on their premiere evening with classics such as the movie theme tune to Alfie, whilst incorporating tracks from her album "What's it all about". This time, and with the launch of her latest album "Out of this World" Julie is performing stunning Jazz influenced material with a contemporary twist.

JAZZ DUNN WELL | Julie Dunn will perform songs from her new album

Alan Pearlman, a Drama Professor & Jazz Critic from Canterbury University said "A stunning and moving musical exploration of life... Songs include great Jazz & Blues standards, plus well loved ballads - Shadow of Your Smile, Blame it on my Youth, Don't you know what Love is, All the things you are, Out of this world, But Beautiful, Not Like This, Well You Needn't.... Together with a couple of self penned compositions...."

Her voice amazingly brings all these songs to vivid life and meaning, capturing the deep sadness and at the same time transcending it and turning it into an affirmation of human existence in spite of all its pain"

Pre-booking for dinner between 7:00 and 8:00 pm is essential, and guests should telephone on the day (between 2:00 and 6:00pm) to confirm numbers in their party, at which time they will be informed of the cover charge - anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9:00pm.

Hutliving Here and There

WHAT are an octopus, tube of toothpaste and a doll's shoe doing in the Art Centre's gallery?

The Hutliving Here & There exhibition launched successfully with a real shepherds' hut on the forecourt and the Bucky Don'ts joyful ukuleles welcoming people of all ages into the gallery, and it goes on attracting visitors who are returning with friends and family to explore different aspects of the show, including the hunt for unusual objects.

School children from Charmouth, Burton Bradstock, Symondsburys and Mountjoy have also been bringing their aunts, dads and mums in to see what Hutliving Here & There is all about, after finding the Eddie Butterfield's shepherds' hut in their playgrounds last week, and working with project curator Nancy Clemance on constructing their own card huts to contribute to the exhibition.

There will be a special schools' day on Friday, May 18th and a free public event at 2pm on Saturday, May 19th to finish the exhibition with a talk from commissioned artist Fran Crowe.

During the exhibition, Nancy will be selecting eight young people interested in earning their Bronze Arts Award, a national scheme which recognises young people's achievements in the arts. The Award has been funded by West Dorset District Council and will be free to those selected to work on it over the summer. Anyone aged 11 - 24 and interested in finding out more can meet Nancy in the Gallery Thursday 10 or Saturday 12 May at 4.30pm.

The Hutliving Here & There oral history project has also been launched and can now be found on the Projects page of the Bridport Museum website. The exhibition will run until Saturday, May 19 and the gallery is open Tuesday - Saturday, 10am - 4pm.

The interior of the restaurant has now been opened up so that diners can get a glimpse of the kitchen and see the dishes being created. Steve and his team are extremely accommodating and are more than happy to adhere to any dietary requirements.

“I have lived in Lyme Regis for over 20 years and could not think of a nicer place on the Jurassic Coast to be.

I feel extremely privileged to be living in this part of the country within a thriving community of farmers, fisherman, suppliers and small holders who provide me with an abundance of produce from fruit to fish right on my doorstep.

For the last 3 years I have worked for the Celebrity Chef and Patron, Mark Hix at his Oyster and Fish House having learnt my trade in local restaurants in and around Lyme Regis and London.

I have a great passion for food and through ‘The Bay Leaf’ I hope to incorporate as much fresh, locally sourced ingredients as possible to my contemporary take on English cooking. As such the menu will reflect seasonal changes as well as availability of ingredients

If you have any special dietary requirements or questions about the menu please feel free to ask my team and we will endeavour to accommodate you.”

THE DICTATOR <sup>15</sup>

HAFFAZ Alladeen is the bizarre dictator of the oil-rich African nation of Waadeya. Alladeen is as egotistical and ruthless as dictators come, executing anyone who disagrees with him using his signature "head chop" signal. Alladeen is summoned by the UN to address their concerns about his nuclear program. Comedy starring Sacha Baron Cohen as Haffaz Alladeen.

2 DAYS IN NEW YORK <sup>15</sup>

MARION (Julie Delpy) has broken up with Jack (as seen in Two Days in Paris) and now lives in New York with their child. But when her family decides to visit her, she's unaware that the different cultural background held by her new American boyfriend Mingus (Chris Rock), her eccentric father, and her sister Rose (Alexia Landeau) who decided to bring her ex-boyfriend along for the trip, added to her upcoming photo exhibition, will make up for an explosive mix.

CULTURE CLASH | Julie Delpy and Chris Rock in 2 Days in New York

THE RAID <sup>18</sup>

IN THE Jakarta slums, a derelict apartment building has become a no-go area - even the police are unwilling to enter. It has become a safe-house for the most dangerous killers and gangsters. A SWAT team infiltrate the building, under the cover of darkness, to remove its owner - a notorious drug lord named Tama (Ray Sahetapy). Also stars Iko Uwais, Doni Alamsyah, Joe Taslim and Yayan Ruhian.

Four bedroom detached family home in Lyme Regis

PALMER Snell in Lyme Regis are very proud to offer this very well presented four bedroom detached family home with sea and coastal views situated on the favoured western side of Lyme Regis.

The accommodation consists of four bedrooms (master en-suite), kitchen / diner, utility room, family bathroom, shower room and conservatory. Features of the property are the wonderful original block flooring that is laid throughout the main hallway and the lounge and the roof mounted solar heating system that provides the domestic hot water for the property.

The property also benefits from a linked single garage and private off road parking for several vehicles.

The gardens to the front include a lawn and flower beds whilst the rear garden is mainly laid to lawn and well stocked with mature trees, including bamboo, eucalyptus and acer, shrubs and a vegetable garden tucked away at the bottom with a garden shed nearby. There is also a timber cabin to the side of the house that has electric and lighting supplied that could be used as a workshop.

The present owners currently have the downstairs bedroom set up as a bed and breakfast room.

The bedroom itself has a shower room next to it and can be accessed by a separate front door, so this could well be maintained by new owners as is or used as granny annexe.

Berrydown is situated in a cul-de-sac location and was constructed around 1959. The flexible accommodation would suit as either a permanent residence or as a small bed and breakfast business.

Viewings are very highly recommended and anyone interested should contact the office in Lyme Regis on 01297 443556.

Lexus leads the way in nation wide MOT pass rate analysis

LEXUS quality shines through as Honest John confirmed the manufacturer is rated as the top performer in an analysis of MoT pass rates.

The analysis of MoT records obtained by honestjohn.co.uk, revealed that an average of 88.2 per cent of Lexus cars registered in 2008 passed their first MoT, against a national average of 80 per cent.

Lexus is also the best performing manufacturer when analysing all MoT records, with a pass rate of 75.3%. MoT data has been collected since 1980, a total of 24.5 million records.

Richard Balshaw, Director of Lexus GB said 'These results reinforce the simple message that, if you buy a Lexus, you are buying a car that is of the highest quality.'

The research by honestjohn.co.uk involved examining tens of millions of records obtained from the Vehicle Operator and Services Agency (VOSA) through the Government's OpenData scheme. Now honestjohn.co.uk is publishing it as The MoT Files at honestjohn.co.uk/mot - the first time this information has ever been available to the public in such detail.

Nissan NV200 wins Trade Van Driver's Best Small Trades Van 2012

• Nissan NV200 named 'Best Small Trades Van' in magazine awards

• Best in class with significant storage capacity and huge versatility

THE Nissan NV200 has been voted 'best small trades van' in Trade Van Driver magazine's annual awards.

NV200 was judged to be the best in class for its significant storage capacity and huge versatility.

Matt Eisenegger, editor of Trade Van Driver commented: "This small van with the big interior is now becoming a common sight on the UK's roads. It's hardly surprising as although it has a small footprint ideal for city use, it will swallow an amazing 4.2 cubic metres of cargo – more than any other van in the sector. No wonder so many trade buyers are opting for this vehicle."

The NV200 is available as a Panel Van – with a 1.5 dCi engine with 85hp or 110hp – and as a five or seven seat Combi. The NV200 comes well equipped with Bluetooth connectivity across the entire range and the n-tec Panel Van and SE-Combi feature the popular Nissan Connect satellite navigation and communications system along with cruise control and a speed limiter which can be adjusted by the driver.

James Douglas, corporate sales director, Nissan Motor (GB) Ltd commented: "The NV200 has been designed as the most versatile compact van. Its compact dimensions and tight turning circle make it perfect for city driving while still offering the largest cargo volume in its category. We are delighted to receive this award from Trade Van Driver."

The Trade Van Driver Awards give recognition to vehicle manufacturers who, in the opinion of the judges, offer the very best to van buyers. The judging panel includes the magazine's journalists and a panel of readers who use LCVs as part of their businesses. Trade Van Driver magazine caters for the owner-driver and small fleet operator.

MPV King Seat Alhambra picks up tenth UK award

• Class leading seven-seat MPV is Diesel Car MPV of the Year once again
• Latest Alhambra has collected ten national awards since launch

• SEAT's ultimate family car goes from strength to strength
SEAT UK is celebrating a double-digit tally of national awards for its widely-praised Alhambra with news that it has been crowned 'MPV of the Year' from respected specialist publication Diesel Car for the second time in a row.

The Spanish car maker's exceptionally flexible seven-seater has been named best MPV by Diesel Car in the magazine's annual Car of the Year Awards. The latest honour joins important 'gongs' from such influential titles as What Car? Car-buyer.co.uk, Auto Express, Fleet World and Fleet News – all of which have named the Alhambra their top MPV.

The Alhambra was praised by the experts at Diesel Car for its flexibility, value for money and high quality. 'Everything about the Alhambra is planned for total convenience' summarised the magazine in its awards issue.

Specialist motoring title Diesel Car focuses on the diesel car market but also includes reports on alternatively fuelled and eco-friendly vehicles. The well-respected magazine boasts a long list of established and influential writers and contributors who deliver the latest news on, and insights into, the diesel car market. Welcoming the Alhambra's brace of award wins, SEAT UK Managing Director Peter Wyhinny said:

"This fantastic award from Diesel Car is the tenth UK accolade the Alhambra has received, which shows very clearly how brilliant our seven-seater really is.

Available in S, SE or top spec' SE Lux trim and priced from just £23,535 RRP, the award-winning Alhambra is offered with a choice of modern turbocharged petrol or diesel powerplants. All engines can be paired with either a six-speed manual or a smooth six-speed DSG auto that offers the extra flexibility of sequential manual operation via the standard-fit steering wheel-mounted paddle shifts.

WEST DORSET FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

WITH STUART BROOM & HOWARD LARCOMBE

Final week heroics enough as Charmouth beat the drop

Friday, May 11th DAISY HUTCHINGS CUP FINAL DOWLISH & DONYATT 3 MILLWEY RISE RES 3

- MILLWEY WON 5-3 ON PENS.
(at Perry Street FC)

MILLWEY Rise became the first ever Perry Street League Division Three side to lift the 42-year-old Daisy Hutchings Cup after they came from behind twice to defeat Dowlish & Donyatt.

Division Two outfit Dowlish, playing in their third Final in 14 days took the early initiative when skipper Lee Mears opened the scoring after just three minutes.

But thoughts of an upset were raised when a Dowlish defender deflected a Bradley Miller shot past his own 'keeper, the experienced Jamie Lee.

The South Somerset side restored the lead on the cusp of half-time through promising youngster Nathan Doey. The timing of the goal could have knocked the stuffing out of Simon Flint's side. Far from it. Parity was restored in the 63rd minute when Danny Larcombe pounced for his 12th goal of the season.

At 2-2 the teams couldn't be split and extra-time was required.

Millwey took the lead for the first time in the match in the 94th minute when top-scorer Levi Hoole pounced for his 25th goal of the season. The goal was etched in controversy. Hoole's shot was half-saved by 'keeper Lee but squirmed from his grasp and headed goalwards.

Lee jumped on the loose ball and was adamant that the ball hadn't crossed the line. Despite the obvious doubt referee Bob Brunt and his linesman Clive Crabb decided otherwise and Millwey had their lead.

But this was to last just five minutes as the talented Mears notched his second goal of the final forcing the dreaded penalty shoot-out.

Millwey converted their first four and Dowlish three before the hoops' Matt Vinall struck the post leaving Carl German to score the winning spot-kick.

Saturday, May 12th PREMIER

FARWAY UNITED 5 SOUTH PETHERTON 2
FARWAY United ended the season in fine style with James Salter netting a hat-trick in a 5-2 win against out-going champions Sout Petherton.

DIVISION TWO

CREWKERNE RANGERS 1 CHARMOUTH 2
GOALS from Simon Smythe and Paul Grinter proved crucial as Charmouth avoided a third successive relegation with a 2-1 win at Wadham School.

The Robins calmed any lingering pre-match nerves when they got off to the perfect start with Smythe netting in the very first minute.

Those nerves will have surfaced again just before half-time when Simon Cherry equalised for the hosts.

With the result now in the balance the next goal was to prove crucial. And thankfully for the West Dorset club it came via a Paul Grinter flick header on the hour.

The Robins, whose fine end of season form yielded 11 points from the then saw out the remainder of the match which included a bewildering 11 minutes of injury-time added on by referee Mike Benjafiel.

Gale sinks Swans with late strike

Bridport Reserves 1 Swanage Town & Herston 0

TRISTAN Gale's strike five minutes from time was enough to separate two very evenly matched sides that produced an entertaining and competitive end of season Magna Dorset Premier League fixture at St Mary's Field last Tuesday.

So even were the sides, that for the first hour neither keeper was really worried as defences dominated, but heavy rain that started to fall during the final 30 minutes spiced the game up as players found the greasy ball and inclement conditions tricky.

Even so, it looked like the game would end goalless, and Gale's winner almost came out of the blue.

Matt Condliffe made yet another of his penetrating run down the line that had the Swanage defence on the alert all game, and when this one was blocked the ball ran to Gale who fired in a low 25-yard shot that pierced the Swans defence and left keeper Jimmy Hollywood rooted to the spot.

Joint managers Steve Crabb and Mark Lock looking to next season, gave Lyme Regis Joe Bond an opportunity to show off his skills, but he, like fellow striker Jack Scovell, were well policed by the Swans defence.

The first action didn't come until the 16th minute when Bees keeper Lee Cleal was booked for bringing down Swans' lively striker Jacob Harrop outside the box as they tangled for a through ball.

Cleal then made the only save of the first-half on the half-hour when he did well to parry Aaron Scott's spiteful low drive across the six-yard area which was hooked away by Ashley Clarke.

Bond did find space for a shot soon after when Dom McAllister played him in on the edge of the box, but he pulled his shot as he swivelled and it harmlessly passed the far post.

Jamie Morgan gave him another chance on 37 minutes but Swans defender Stephen Broomfield was quick to clear the danger with a superb tackle.

Bridport started the second-half with more purpose with Morgan beginning to make his mark with some searing runs down the right, and in the 49th minute Darren Lock was too fine with his glancing header from one of his crosses.

Opportunities became more frequent as the rain began to fall, and Hollywood did well to spread himself to deflect Gale's effort after he had held off Lee James on the hour.

The rain was making life difficult for both sides and Hollywood spilled Morgan's speculative 35-yard shot before Gale earned the Bees all three points with his goal.

Bridport should have made the game safe when Morgan cut along the byeline, but sub Roger Cummings' sidefoot from two yards was hacked off the line.

Swanage then had two chances to square the match in the dying minutes when first Harrop sliced his effort straight at Cleal, before skipper Ash Clarke denied Martin Motanga a shot on goal with a superb tackle in added time.

Sophie retains Dorset Championship

SIXTEEN-year-old Sophie Keech retained the Dorset Ladies County Championship at Came Down Golf Club last week.

In a rain and fog threatened championship, the sun shone on the final two days as Sophie came out on top in a hard fought match play final against Broadstone's Kyra Horlock winning by 2 holes on the 18th.

Sophie raced to a two-hole lead in the early stages before Kyra levelled affairs with two huge putts in the middle holes to threaten Sophie's title.

Sophie turned the screws with a magnificent approach to the 17th to win the hole and then secured victory on the 18th holing a difficult 10 foot putt.

After the qualifying medal round, Sophie faced a tough draw in the knock-out stages.

She defeated Dorset Ladies Captain, Jane Southcombe, by two holes in the quarter-final before winning 2 & 1 against Bridport's Nicky Stonein the semi-final.

Sophie's successful defence of her title is a magnificent achievement for the youngster, and a feeling shared proudly by her home golf club at Lyme Regis.

Sophie said: "It was a really tough defending my title as there were great expectations on me winning this year, and having to overcome three really good players to win was fantastic".

She went on to thank her caddy, Lizzie Linnert and members of Lyme Regis Golf Club for their valuable support at the final, and further thanked Millfield School, where Karen Nicholls (Sophie's coach) has been an inspiration to Sophie's rapid progress.

After the presentation at Came Down Golf Club, Sophie was announced in the team of a very strong Dorset Ladies Squad to play in the South West Match Week at Trevose in Cornwall.

Runner-up spot for Thorne

LOOKING to claim his second victory of the season at Wiscombe Park Rod Thorne appeared to be on track with a best practice time of 38.27 seconds in his V8 powered Pilbeam MP58 single-seater racer.

However Ed Hollier, who was to be the Frampton garage proprietors nemesis, was a mere one hundredth of a second in arrears with his new mount for the 2012 season the Suzuki Hayabusa powered Pilbeam MP62.

The first of the official timed runs saw Thorne and his three and a half litre Judd powered car scale the Wiscombe track in 38.36 seconds. Advantage Thorne by 0.025 seconds.

The 1600cc machine of Hollier having no answer to the challenge at this stage but later in the afternoon the tables were turned with Hollier completing the 900 metre course in 37.36 with Thorne unable to improve.

Both drivers return to Wiscombe Park this weekend (May 19/20th) for a re-match and a further two events.

With no separate sports racing class Hayley Thorne and Colin Pook, campaigning the Pilbeam MP43 sports car, were included in a combined racing car and sports car category.

Hayley in only her second outing at Wiscombe in the car (her first in dry conditions) recorded a best of 46.16 whilst the experienced Pook claimed a best climb of 42.51.

The motor cycle classes saw the first Wiscombe appearance of Portland pairing Kevin and Sara Dewell on their Windle Suzuki sidecar outfit.

Although more accustomed to riding solo the duo steadily improved their times during the course of the day to achieve a best of 57.56 seconds and claim a fourth in class.

This weekend will see a full programme of motor sport spread across the two days with a variety of machinery in action, from road-going saloons and sports cars through the modified categories, including B.M.W.s, Subaru Imprezas, and Mitsubishi Evos to the racing car divisions.

There will also be one make categories for MG on Saturday as well as TVR, on both days.

Gates open for the practice runs at 10am each day with the event starting after a break for lunch.

Both meetings are scheduled to be completed by 5.30pm. Admission: Adults £7. Accompanied children under 14 years of age free.

Car Parking free. Wiscombe Park is situated north of Blackberry Camp and will be signposted from Honiton and on the A3052. For more Wiscombe information www.wiscombepark.co.uk

Fancy a game of cricket?

ONE of this year's sides has unexpectedly dropped out of the Crosby Cup at the last moment leaving organiser Colin Willcox with a problem.

The competition comprises of four teams playing a round robin, with the top two teams going through to the Cup and the bottom two a Losers Plate knockout format, which means a minimum of four and maximum of six games to be played between now and mid August.

Anyone interested in entering a team should contact Colin Willcox on 07879840862 as soon as possible.

Gig racing

Bridport impress at World Championships

THE WORLD Pilot Gig Championships held in the Isles of Scilly each May is the largest event on the gig rowing calendar, and this year Bridport sent three crews to compete in the racing.

The Men's Vets gained plaudits all round when they came in fifth on the Friday evening race from St Agnes. A man short before the event, Claire Waddington from the Ladies A crew, stepped in to row, attracting surprised looks from rival crews.

In the main races over the Saturday and Sunday, the men continued their good form, staying in group D and being placed 44th out of 120 overall.

The Ladies A crew fought a very close last race to finish in 2nd place in group E, with overall placing of 50th out of 125 crews, whilst racing in the borrowed St Mary's gig, Serica, the Ladies B crew came 3rd in group J, 111th overall.

Coach Mike O'Leary said: "Well done to all who took part in the championships in Scilly, they did amazingly well and it was an honour and a pleasure to row and be part of the Bridport club; especially well done to Nick Cowley, Tessa Charnley, Geraldine Day, Grant Gibson and Gemma Smith for rowing in their first Scillies.

"Also well done to the B team girls who took on an unknown boat and made it move so well.

"I was particularly impressed with how they all rowed and all their hard work over the winter months certainly paid off.

"I think they are making an excellent job of laying the foundations for future triumphs."

Olympic experience for Bridport's Holly

BRIDPORT athlete Holly Butt described her experience of running in the London Olympic Stadium last week as 'incredible'.

The 15-year-old Sir John Colfox School student was part of the Girls 4x 100m relay team that gained a silver medal representing South West England at the Schools UK Games, part of the 'London Prepares' programme.

One of the UK's top sprinters, Holly was selected on her times for this and last year.

Running the third leg she and her teammates clocked a time of 47.79 secs, but just failed to beat North East England who won in 47.62 secs.

Reflecting on the experience she said: "Going to the UK School Games was such an amazing experience.

"Getting the opportunity to run in the Olympic stadium and on the track where many famous athletes will run in the 2012 Olympics later this year was just incredible.

"Walking onto that track just left me speechless.

"The event lasted four days during which I got to know so many new friends and met some successful famous athletes that gave me lots of motivation to want to go on and do well.

"I also got to experience many new sports at the Olympic village, and to watch other athletes compete in their sports.

"The atmosphere was just incredible. I feel so privileged that I was one of the lucky few that got chosen to take part in such a big event.

"To be honest it was one of the best experiences of my life, and I would love to be able to get the chance to do it all over again; the people around me and the atmosphere was amazing.

"My next goal would be to win English Schools and make it into the GB squad and compete at the European Youth Olympics and Commonwealth Games.

"This would be such a big achievement for me.

"I know that I have already made my parents proud, but if it wasn't for them or my coach I couldn't have come as far as I have now.

"So I thank them so very much for everything they have done for me, and I hope I can keep on making them proud."

◆ NOTE: The League's annual presentation night takes place on Friday, May 25th at the Beehive.

Oyez! bowls club is 75 years young!

LAST week Lyme Regis Bowls Club celebrated its 75th year. Town crier Alan Vian attended at the start and gave a very informative 'cry' on the formation and early stages of the club.

An informal game of bowls was followed by a buffet supplied by club members.

Marnie Beadsley, wife of captain John Beadsley, presented the club with a superb anniversary cake which she had decorated with a bowls scene.

The club fared slightly better in the league this week, with the 'A' team managing a well earned 8-2 victory over Portland B.O. The ladies lifted their tally by the odd point losing to Westmoors by 8-2.

The championship again relied on Paul Pomeroy's rink to supply the only points, but their were encouraging signs from the other two as they went down by a single shot over all.

Lyme's men went to a cold and damp Dorchester on Friday night to partake in the first round of 'Top Club'. It was a dismal night for Lyme who only won one discipline out of five.

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE Premier League

BLANDFORD 165-8 LOST TO

DORCHESTER 166-6 BY FOUR WICKETS

TWO debutants took centre stage as Dorchester got their 2012 campaign off with a four wicket victory at Blandford.

James Lewis, who has moved to Dorset and has been playing in the Hertfordshire league, produced a superb all round performance taking 3-17 from his eight overs and then getting the county town off to a good start with a solid 25.

Sam Goodhew was equally as effective. The former Puddletown player broke up the partnership of Dan Brockway (44) and Alex White (38) as they began to put pressure on Dorchester, by having the former caught by Rob Waite before dismissing Tom Nichols for a duck.

He then produced a mature and intelligent batting display to help Dorchester regroup after they had slumped to 100-5 in reply.

Dan Belt won the toss and opted to field in what was to be a crucial decision. Mike Shepherd (17) and Brockway put on 53 for the first wicket before Lewis got the vital breakthrough and then dismissed Lewis Mutton (6).

Things looked rosy with the hosts 101-2 before Goodhew (2-35) struck to slow things down. With Belt (2-39) chipping in Blandford finally reached 165-8 with Lewis bowling Kevin Robbins with the last ball of the innings to claim a fourth bowling point.

In reply Waite and Lewis put on 30 for the first wicket but Lewis followed shortly after, and although Ian Sibley (15) and Dan Belt (26) contributed well Dorchester looked as if they could struggle at 100-5.

However Goodhew (36) was joined by Quenton Miller who in turn with Lewis Chutter saw the visitors home with four wickets and over 13 overs to spare.

Skipper Martyn Richards who could only watch the game from the boundary through injury said: "The toss was vital. All credit to Blandford and their grounds man who's skipper Stuart Robbins told me had worked feverishly on Friday afternoon and evening, and again on Saturday to make the pitch playable, and we are extremely grateful to him for doing so.

"It was a bit soft and both sides were a bit rusty playing their first game of the season, but it was played in an excellent spirit.

"James (Lewis) is in his mid 20s and an excellent all-rounder and is going to be a big player for us, whilst we have tried to get Sam (Goodhew) over to play for us for a number of years. He is an excellent attacking off spinner who turns the ball a long way. His innings was just what we needed."

Richards thought Belt's use of the new power-play rule was pivotal to their success: "It really slowed their chance to score late runs and gave us a good target of 165 rather than chasing 185 or even 200 maybe."

Division Two

WEYMOUTH 2ND 86 ALL OUT

LOST TO MARTINSTOWN 87-4 BY FOUR WICKETS
MARTINSTOWN won this local derby after ripping through the Weymouth tail end; taking their last six wickets for just four runs to give themselves a comfortable target of just 86 to beat.

Martinstown won the toss and put their hosts in on a tricky wicket. Ryan Monk and Cameron Armfield put on 25 before Armfield was caught in the slips off Danny Dancer.

Dave Kiteley fell to debutant Ross Stewart but when Liam Banfield bowled Monk (20) and Harry Tucker first ball the hosts were in trouble at 49-4.

Skipper Michael Pearce (12) and brother David (12) steadied the ship but when Michael Pearce was caught behind by Ed Nichols off Stewart on 82-5 the writing was on the wall.

Stewart finished with 4-21 off 7.5 overs whilst Banfield (5-26 off 8 overs) collected the other three to dismiss Weymouth for just 86 runs.

Martinstown lost Nichols leg before for a duck to Michael Pearce (1-18) with just a single on the board it looked like it would be close. However Lee House was in good form and carried his bat for 31 not out and although the wily John Ryan (2-17 from 8.5 overs) and Graham Puckett (1-18 from 9 overs) held them up, Martinstown cruised to an easy victory.

Dancer said: "It was a really tricky pitch and credit to Weymouth for going ahead with the game. It was a good toss to win and we made the most of winning it.

"Matt Camp and myself bowled well. But it was the first change partnership of debutant Ross Stewart and Liam Banfield that did the damage. Wickets came in pairs and we were happy that we finished off their lower order without adding too much to the score.

"Lee House batted very sensibly to take us over the line. It's a shame we lost four wickets and two points, but on that pitch its victory first and points accumulation second."

Division Three

CATTISTOCK 56-5 BEAT BRIDPORT 55 ALL OUT

BY FIVE WICKETS

MARTIN Langford and his father Buddy tormented Bridport last season when they played at the Brewery Ground, and he was the main man this time as Cattistock eased past Bridport.

With the Chilfrone Lane pitch unplayable, this game was switched to Charlton Down's artificial wicket.

Winning the toss, Bridport skipper Liam Toohill decided to bat but he was soon back in the pavilion as were the other top three batsmen as they slumped to 25-4.

Ashley Nichols and Mark Smith dug in and had looked to have stabilised the innings before the latter was leg before to Bradley Damon (2-30) on 46-5.

Once Nichols (14), who had hit a four and then a wonderful six over extra cover went soon after, the rest followed as Langford (7-16 off 10.3 overs) ripped through the rest to leave Cattistock looking at a relatively easy 56 for victory.

However it didn't turn out that way. Toohill (2-10) removed both openers Nick Roe and Ben Walbridge for ducks, and with the exceptionally quick Dom Gape trapping Ben Golledge for another duck and Steve Tucker for three, the hosts found themselves 12-4 and looking down the barrel.

Langford however rescued them with an unbeaten 27, although had Bridport taken one of the two chances he offered them in the slips whilst in single figures, the outcome could have been different. With Ben Robinson (10) they added 36 for the fourth wicket and cruised home off just 17 overs.

Toohill said: "Our batting was poor again, but our bowling was much improved and our ground fielding excellent.

"Unfortunately we dropped Martin Langford twice when he was in single figures, and who knows at 20-5 we might have had a chance.

"Lack of practice has been a real problem, but we have cut a wicket close to the square to try and get out there this week, and we will have Ed Hanson and Wes Lewis back on Saturday."

Division Five North & West

MARNHULL 2ND 87 ALL OUT

LOST TO ABBOTSBURY 88-2 BY EIGHT WICKETS

ABBOTSBURY kicked-off their season with an eight wicket victory at Marnhull 2nds.

BRIDPORT 24 ALL OUT LOST TO WEYMOUTH LONGSHOTS 143 ALL OUT BY 119 RUNS

VETERAN all-rounder Fred Etherington must have wondered what he had let himself in for in his first game for Bridport 2nds on Saturday.

Having turned in an excellent bowling display with 5-25 from 12 overs including five maidens, he then top scored in reply with 16 in a total of 24 not out!

Bridport won the toss and opted to bowl. Some good tight fielding and Etherington's excellent spell restricted Weymouth Longshots to 143 all out with Nahayate (33) top scoring.

Bridport's reply was disastrous and they were soon 1-4 and 4-6 as Nahayate (4-6 from five overs) and Anderson (3-3 from four overs) decimated the home side to skittle them out for a paltry 24 runs.

Bridport captain Jamie Dollman said: "Despite some good fielding and a first class bowling display by Fred (Etherington) their score was 20 or 30 more runs than we hoped, but we thought we were in with a good chance."

Division Six North & West

PORTLAND RT 2ND 140-9 LOST TO BEAMINSTER 2ND 176-9 BY 36 RUNS

BEAMINSTER 2nd's opened their campaign with a good victory over Portland RT.

Some tight bowling from Holly (1-31) and S Bendell (1-16) who both bowled through their 12 overs apiece saw Beaminster behind the clock, but patient batting from openers Dave Penman (7) and Will Everitt with a stubborn 76, and skipper Hugh Rathbone (11) batting at three, saw them off. Ross Baker scored 27 as Beaminster posted 176-9.

Good bowling from Beaminster saw them home by 36 runs.

MARTINSTOWN 2ND 42-3 BEAT

& HINTON 41 ALL OUT BY SEVEN WICKETS

MARTINSTOWN 2nds continued their winning start to the season, this time with a resounding victory at home to Sturminster and Hinton. The home side, having won the toss, decided to bowl and made short work of the Sturminster batsmen.

The pace attack of Declan Croft and Chris Read, reduced the visitors to 41 all out after just 17 overs.

Martinstown lost three wickets in reply, with Stuart Dawson hitting three consecutive 4's in his top scoring 20 not out to seal victory.

Sunday Division Three

PORTLAND RT 177-5 BEAT

SYMENE 165-8 BY 12 RUNS

SOME poor fielding and missed opportunities cost Symene some 20 runs or so in the field and that was the difference in this match.

Portland, one of the stronger sides in the league, batted first and solid performances from C Leek (35), T Price (30), M Randall (35) and K Davey (28) saw them post a target of 177-5. Marcel Grunschloss (2-48) was the most successful Symene bowler with Colin Willcox, Graham Bartlett and Ollie Lee all taking a wicket.

Symene made a good start in reply scoring 70 off the first 14 overs with opener Grunschloss (32) and Steve Prior (35) posting good scores.

By the 29th over the score had slowed to 105 as C Leek (3-33) made inroads, and despite a swashbuckling 22 from Keith Readings with two 4s and two sixes, Symene fell just short as the Portland bowler's restricted a late effort for victory.

BEAT FENITON 2NDS 118 ALL OUT

BY EIGHT WICKETS.

UPLYME 2nds kicked off their campaign in style with an eight-wicket win against an ill-tempered Feniton 2nd side writes Paul Crompton.

Captain Brian Rattenbury – with memories of a hard fought losing draw when the sides last met – inserted Feniton onto a dry, but flat pitch. Uplyme's bowlers then took advantage of the uneven bounce to skittle out the opposition for 118 after 31 overs.

Michael Holding topped the bowling figures with 3-19. Rattenbury (3-42), Wallace Blackmore (2-33) and youngster Alfie Bellworthy (1-14) also helped restrict the run rate.

In reply Uplyme openers Eddie Clarke (32) and debutant Ian Griffiths (46no) put on 70 for the first wicket.

Griffiths was then joined by Tim Daniels (33no) in a 46-run unbroken third wicket stand as the pair cruised to their target.

Bridport bowlers off to a flier

BRIDPORT Bowling Club's men got the new season off to a fine start with two victories in the County League.

At home to Dorchester B Chris Thorne's rink took the honours with a 27-6 success and they were backed up by Bill Payne's four who won 20-8.

Brian Rumble's quartet only lost by one shot as Bridport triumphed 60-38 overall.

Against Wellworthy, the Priory Lane club won 61-54 thanks to a fine victory 26-7 by Chris Thorne's four.

Bridport A went down heavily at Lyme Regis but recorded a narrow 63-61 home victory over Sherborne Ken Sanger's four winning 23-12.

In the First Division of the South Dorset League, Bridport A brought home maximum points from Portland Victoria courtesy of a 75-48 success.

Brian Rumble's four top scored 28-12 followed by Chris Thorne's rink 23-15 and Bill Payne's men won 24-21.

They followed this with a second victory over Greenhill C at Priory Lane by 54 shots to 49.

Chris Thorne's four had an excellent evening scoring heavily over the first 10 ends to run out winners by 27-10 and Brian Rumble's rink came from behind scoring four shots over the last two ends to triumph 16-14.

Bridport's third foursome could not get going and went down by 11-25.

Bridport B won on all rinks against Greenhill C and by 60-44 overall, Alan Cowdrey's quartet taking top honours 25-15 followed by Clive Langdon's rink who won 18-16 and Tom Tocher making a welcome return leading his four to a 17-15 success.

However Bridport C went down rather heavily to Wellworthy B with only Mel Griffiths' four upholding the club's honour winning 20-13.

The club have played two mixed friendlies losing on Axminster's artificial green 62-68 with Mike Smith's and Dinah Wilson's rinks sharing top honours, and a very successful foray to Feniton's delightful green saw the Bridport club win 142- 96 with Alan Cowdrey's rink top scoring 32-10.

There was an encouraging response to the club's invitation for the public to try their hand at bowls and this will be followed up by coaching sessions on five Sunday mornings so there is still time for anyone to have a go. Just ring Bob Taylor on 420732 for details.

Decade of wins for Tender Trap

TENDER TRAP, who won their 10th consecutive Ladies Division One title, dominated the presentation evening of the Bridport & District Darts League which was held at the Freshwater Beach Holiday Park last Friday.

Other highlights included the announcement by the league's President Clifford Samways that Samways had agreed to continue their sponsorship next season.

There was also a surprise presentation to hard-working chairman Reg Pitcher for his dedication and hard work over the past 28 years.

Tender Trap who are based at the Quarterdeck Tavern at West Bay were undefeated only drawing two of their games, also won a number of other trophies including individual awards.

Bradpole Social Club (BSC) won the Men's Division One title for the second year running, once again holding off previous champions Nomads.

which recognised the successes of the season, and one of the biggest cheers of the evening was received by BSC's Ryan Cross, one of the youngest darts players in the league, who in his first season picked up the 180 Trophy for throwing 10 maximum scores.

Chairman Reg Pitcher who completed the evening, sprang a surprise on John Fox by naming him as the recipient of the Chairman's Trophy in recognition of over 40 years service on the committee.

Reg however found himself on the end of a surprise of his own when he was presented with a gift of a joint clock, thermometer and hydrometer by the league for his services.

Having taken over as fixture secretary in 1984, he was vice-chairman to Cliff Samways for 10 years until Mr Samways stood down, and has held the post of chairman for the past 18 years.

The Ladies Singles Champion was Sarah Chick of Tender Trap who retained her title after defeating Janet Collins in the final.

Steve Smith (BSC) also made it two years on the trot as Mens Singles champion, beating Sam Legg of Clockhouse in the men's final.

The awards were presented by Cliff and Angie Samways, vice-chairman Geoff Hoskins, sponsor Derick Harp and Stuart Broom of the VIEW FROM NEWSPAPERS.

In his closing speech Mr Samways congratulated all the winners whilst commiserating with those who were unsuccessful and wishing them well for next season.

He was also pleased to see a lot of faces he knew from over the years, but also delighted that a number of young players were making a name for themselves.

He thanked the committee for all their hard work and VIEW SPORT for their support in publishing the league tables and keeping the players informed.

He also confirmed that his son had agreed to continue sponsorship of the league for next season following a meeting with him earlier that week, after which bouquets were presented to Heather Fox, Sandy Pitcher and Angie Samways for all their hard work.
